THIS ANNOUNCEMENT IS NOT FOR RELEASE, PUBLICATION, DISTRIBUTION OR DISCLOSURE OTHERWISE, EITHER DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY, IN FULL OR IN PART IN OR TO THE UNITED STATES, CANADA, JAPAN, SWITZERLAND, SOUTH AFRICA OR AUSTRALIA OR ANY OTHER JURISDICTION WHERE THIS, OR THE USE OF THIS ANNOUNCEMENT, WILL LEAD TO A VIOLATION OF THE RELEVANT LEGISLATION.

Dividend distribution for the 2023 financial year - optional dividend in shares

The board of directors decided to offer shareholders the choice between receiving the dividend payment for the 2023 financial year in new shares or in cash, or to opt for a combination of both means of payment.

The new shares will be entitled to share in Cofinimmo's results as of 01.01.2024 (first dividend payable in 2025).

Funds not paid in cash will be used by the company to finance property acquisitions and renovation projects.

Terms of the offer of an optional dividend in shares

To determine the new shares' issue price, the board of directors took into consideration the average market price of the share (VWAP) on Euronext Brussels during the reference period from 30.04.2024 until 07.05.2024 of 64.32 EUR, minus the gross dividend of 6.20 EUR, and a discount set by the board of directors at the end of the reference period, after market close on 07.05.2024.

The board of directors fixed an issue price of 56.42 EUR per new share, corresponding to 13 net coupons of the share. This corresponds to a discount of 5.41% compared to the closing price on 07.05.2024 (i.e. 65.85 EUR), after deduction of the gross dividend.

Hence, the terms of this offer, i.e. the number of detached coupons of the share that will entitle the holder to receive one new share, are the following:

- 13 coupons No. 39 of the dividend of the share that entitle the holder to receive one new share, without compensations balance in cash.

The subscription price of one new share by a shareholder stands at $13 \times 4.34 \text{ EUR} = 56.42 \text{ EUR}$.

Communication of the choice of the shareholders

Shareholders are invited to communicate their choice between the two payment modalities to their financial institution between 15.05.2024 and 29.05.2024.

Registered shareholders will receive a letter from Cofinimmo inviting them to communicate their choice to ABN Amro.

Shareholders who have expressed no preference will be paid automatically and exclusively in cash.

REGULATED INFORMATION

Brussels, 08.05.2024, 06:30 p.m. CET

ANNEX 1

Communication to the FSMA pursuant to article 37 of the royal decree of 12.05.2014 regarding regulated real estate companies (RREC)

Pursuant to article 37 of the royal decree of 12.05.2014 on regulated real estate companies (the 'RREC decree'), COFINIMMO SA/NV informed the Financial Services and Markets Authority ('FSMA') of the fact that COFINIMMO plans to offer to the company shareholders the choice between receiving the dividend for the year 2023 in new shares or in cash, or to opt for a combination of both payment modalities.

The board of directors has decided to present to the ordinary general meeting of shareholders an appropriation of the result relating to the period closed on 31.12.2023 in which a gross dividend of 6.20 EUR per share is distributed to the shareholders, which results in a net dividend of 4.34 EUR per share.

Subject to the approval by the company's general meeting of 08.05.2024 of the proposed results appropriation, the board of directors wishes to give an optional character to the ordinary and preference dividends of the 2023 financial year and to offer the following choice to the shareholder, during a subscription period starting on 15.05.2024 and ending on 29.05.2024 at 4 p.m.: 1) to bring his net ordinary and/or preference dividend receivable in the company and receive new ordinary shares in exchange; or 2) to receive the dividend in cash; or 3) to opt for a combination of both solutions. If the shareholder doesn't express a preference during the above-mentioned period, the dividend will be paid in cash, as from 03.06.2024. To this end, the board of directors plans to proceed to a capital increase within the powers provided for in article 6.2 of the articles of association, through the contribution of dividend receivables for a maximum amount of 159,472,549.18 EUR. These new shares will participate in the results as of 01.01.2024.

The issue price of the new shares will be determined based on the average price of the share between 30.04.2024 and 07.05.2024 included, less the gross dividend of 6.20 EUR and a discount set by the board of directors at the end of the reference period, after market close on 07.05.2024.

The said contributions concern the contributions of dividend receivables of the shareholders, relating to coupon No. 39. Pursuant to the commonly accepted valuation methods, the receivables of net dividends, which will be brought in the company, will be valued at their nominal value, i.e. 4.34 EUR. The contributions will be remunerated by the issue of new shares.

To this effect, the company has declared that some directors and managers in their capacity as shareholder will have the opportunity to subscribe for new shares of the company. However, the proposed transaction is in the company's interest and is in line with its strategy. Moreover, it is carried out under normal market conditions and does not provide any particular advantage to persons referred to in article 37, §1 of the RREC decree, compared to all the company's shareholders.

The board of directors believes the payment of an optional dividend is in the best interest of the company as it enables a reduction of the debt-to-assets ratio and an optimal management of the company's equity and treasury. Furthermore, it is likely to strengthen the ties with the shareholders by allowing them to subscribe to new shares of the company at an issue price that is lower than the volume-weighted average price (VWAP) during the reference period from 30.04.2024 to 07.05.2024.
